

Retirement Illustration

As a Graphic Designer and Illustrator, I was honored to create a special illustration for my Supervisor in celebration of her retirement after many years of dedication to USPTO organization. This piece was particularly complex and challenging, giving me the opportunity to ensure every detail and likeness of each child was accurately captured.

After numerous sketches and tweaks, I started working on this final draft sketch to bring the illustration to life.

Adding details as the illustration is starting to take shape

final Illustration

